

Dear Team,

I hope this message finds you well. I'm reaching out to express my genuine interest in joining your organization. I may be at the beginning of my professional career, but I'm full of motivation, curiosity, and the drive to learn and grow alongside a team that values progress and collaboration.

What I'm looking for isn't just a job—it's a place where I can build real skills, take on challenges, and learn from those with more experience. I believe in showing up with a positive attitude, being open to feedback, and always giving my best, no matter the task.

I understand that experience takes time, but I also believe that effort, reliability, and the willingness to improve every day count just as much. I'm ready to contribute in any way I can and would be excited to be part of a supportive and forward-thinking team.

Thank you for taking the time to read my letter. I'd truly appreciate the opportunity to speak further and hopefully be part of your journey.

Best regards,

Gaga Chituashvili
